MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Discussion with Robert Amory on NRO,
1300; 29 March 1965

Amory said he wanted to ask me if there was any purpose in the Bureau of the Budget getting into the NRO matter; he said he understood a new agreement was being drafted. I said that it was my impression that this was one of the things Mr. McCone would like to reach a settlement on and John Bross had been working on a paper in this regard. I added that I wasn't sure whether the Pentagon was equally anxious to reach a settlement, and Amory promptly commented that he understood Vance and Fubini felt it was nothing they had to settle tomorrow and therefore could wait for the Director's successor. I concluded by saying there was no purpose in the Bureau of the Budget getting into the matter at this time, and noted that the Director was planning to discuss it with the President's Board. Amory agreed that they would stay out of it for the time being.
